Your church

As your church gives, prays and goes, unreached people — like the Manga Kanuri of West Africa, the Hulshui Miao of China and the Uzbeks of Uzbekistan — gain access to the life-giving gospel of Jesus Christ. They hear and respond because your IMB missionaries go with full support and because you give generously and sacrificially.

Cooperative Program

When Southern Baptist Convention churches like yours give to the Cooperative Program through their state conventions, they create a vital stream of income that places IMB missionaries in key ministries worldwide. Each state convention gives between 14 and 51 percent of its CP collection to the SBC Cooperative Program. The SBC splits that amount in half, giving 50 percent to the IMB and 50 percent to other SBC entities. CP comprises 36 percent of the IMB's total income.

"There is no better way for your church to invest in eternal things than giving to missions ... that all peoples may know Him"

— Jerry Rankin

Lottie Moon Christmas Offering®

Your church's involvement in LMCO provides for your IMB missionaries' day-to-day needs. Because you give sacrificially, your missionaries can spend their time reaching lost souls instead of raising support. The offering comprises 50 percent of the IMB's total income, and every penny goes to missionaries and their ministries.

Other funding sources

Your special gifts and contributions to world hunger and relief projects allow your missionaries to engage in key ministries that help them gain trust, build relationships and, ultimately, change lives. Five percent of IMB income comes from such gifts, while investment returns make up the remaining 9 percent of income.

Partners in the great missions task

Your IMB missionaries give their lives to the missions task. And your faithful support keeps them on the field doing what God has called them to do. With each soul won to Christ, each new believer's baptism and each church-planting movement started, you are a faithful partner in the harvest.
