

Okpamheri of Nigeria

2025 Status Update

Challenges We've Found

Around 172,000 Okpamheri people live in south-central Nigeria, primarily practicing African Traditional Religion. Their name means “We are one.” Their strong sense of shared ancestry strengthens social and cultural bonds and makes them resistant to outsiders. Despite a century of Catholic and Anglican churches among them, little evangelical work has been done. Regional conflict currently hinders efforts, but Nigerian believers are praying for the Okpamheri and eager to share the gospel with them.

How You Can Pray

- Pray for peace across Nigeria so the gospel may be proclaimed to all peoples living in conflict zones.
- Pray for Nigerian believers to boldly share their faith among the Okpamheri.
- Pray for the Okpamheri to find unity in Christ.
