

Yerwa Kanuri of Niger

2025 Status Update

Challenges We've Found

The Yerwa Kanuri live in a conflict-torn region in eastern Niger along the border with Nigeria. People have gathered in the regional capital for safety. Many can't farm because of the risk of attack, so hunger, homelessness, and poverty are widespread. There may be a few Yerwa Kanuri believers, but no church exists among them. Although the New Testament is available in print and audio, few Kanuri can access it. Turmoil makes ministry or research among them nearly impossible.

How You Can Pray

- Pray for any isolated believers to grow in their faith by listening to or studying the Word.
- Pray for someone to bravely proclaim the gospel among the Yerwa Kanuri.
- Pray for stability in this region devastated by conflict.
